

April 9th 2009

DERBYSHIRE & NOTTINGHAMSHIRE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUSINESS AWARDS 2009

inspirepac achieve business recognition by reaching the finals of The Derbyshire & Nottinghamshire Chamber of Commerce Business Awards 2009, in the category Most Promising New Business.

To reach the finalist stage inspirepac had to demonstrate the products and services it supplies, its customers and the markets it operates in. Also identifying what specific strategies have been undertaken to drive growth, such as customer recruitment and retention, financial planning, supplier relationships, workforce development, innovation and effective marketing. Whilst highlighting the challenges inspirepac has faced and how we overcame them to make our business stand out from the competition and differentiate ourselves in order to increase sales turnover and profit development.

Over 300 people attended the Gala dinner, which was held at Derby's Pride Park Stadium, introduced by George Cowcher DNCC Chief Executive and compered by actor Brian Blessed.

inspirepac directors and wives with compère, Brian Blessed.

CREATIVE