inspirepac wins top industry award...

inspirepac has won the 'Packaging Company of the Year Award' at the UK Packaging Awards 2010.

At a glittering ceremony held on 4 November at Grosvenor House, London the company scooped the top prize, beating off fierce competition from its rivals. This year's awards dinner, brought together more than 400 of the industry's top players to celebrate the UK Packaging Awards.

The UK Packaging Awards are the most prestigious in the industry, 'Packaging Company of the Year Award' is the top accolade and the most coveted of all prizes. The judges were particularly impressed by the company's financial performance in the current challenging market. One of the judges described inspirepac as a 'very well-managed independent business' and praised its 'excellent' facilities, product portfolio and customer service ethos.

The comments reflect inspirepac's ability to win fans both amongst clients and the wider packaging sector for its innovative retail-oriented corrugated packaging which comprises retail-ready packs, point-of-sale, gift packs and more.

inspirepac CEO, Chris Marples collected the award with members of the inspirepac team and commented "This success is testament to the hard work and commitment of all the staff, in every department, at all sites, to the continuous pursuit of excellence in tough economic conditions".
